CLASS HISTORY

1957 marked a great year in each of our lives. That was the year we entered high school. Although three of our classmates moved to different towns, we gained eleven.

The highlights of our freshman year were our bake sales, our skating party, and our trips to Chanute and Schaffer Lake.

We gained two more classmates at the start of our sophomore year. Everyone enjoyed trying to sell brooms to everyone and anyone who was willing to help our POOR class out! This was the year we had the opportunity to serve at the Jr.-Sr. Prom. All those who participated in serving at "Chez Paree" had loads of fun.

At the start of our junior year seven more classmates moved away. Our junior year proved to be very active in many ways. That was the year we put on the play, "The Thread That Runs So True." Although everyone enjoyed play practices, the Jr.-Sr. Prom was the highlight of the year. Everyone enjoyed working on "Some Enchanted Evening" and were well rewarded by an evening to remember.

Two new students entered our class in our senior year. One of these was a foreign student from Germany. Soon after our fourth and last year got into swing one of our classmates moved away.

One of the first things our class did was to get started on the play. "Dear Phoebe" proved a great success and everyone enjoyed rehearsing for it.

"Red Sails in the Sunset" was the theme of a very beautiful prom at which the seniors were honored guests.

The day following the prom all the seniors, except three, and four sponsors boarded a Greyhound Scenicruiser and left Cissna Park to spend seven exciting days in Washington D.C. and New York. Due to only one mishap, namely a flat tire, we were unable to include Gettysburg in our schedule. After spending an enjoyable week in the two cities we again boarded the big Greyhound and headed back home. Arriving in C.P. a few hours ahead of schedule, we caught the juniors in the act of putting up decorations to welcome us back. As the seniors were climbing off the bus, the drums were playing and a huge sign was brought out which read, "Welcome back, Seniors!" Everyone was very much impressed and a few tears slid down the cheeks of the girls. Everyone agreed that the past week was one to remember even though we were glad to be back.

Yes, our return meant so many different things to us. It brought an end to the trip, it meant Baccalaureate and Graduation were drawing nigh, but, most of all, it brought an end to our high school days - those wonderful, wonderful days we will never be able to relive. Now all we have are memories. But let's keep these memories precious and close to us so we may cherish them forever and never forget all our good times together.

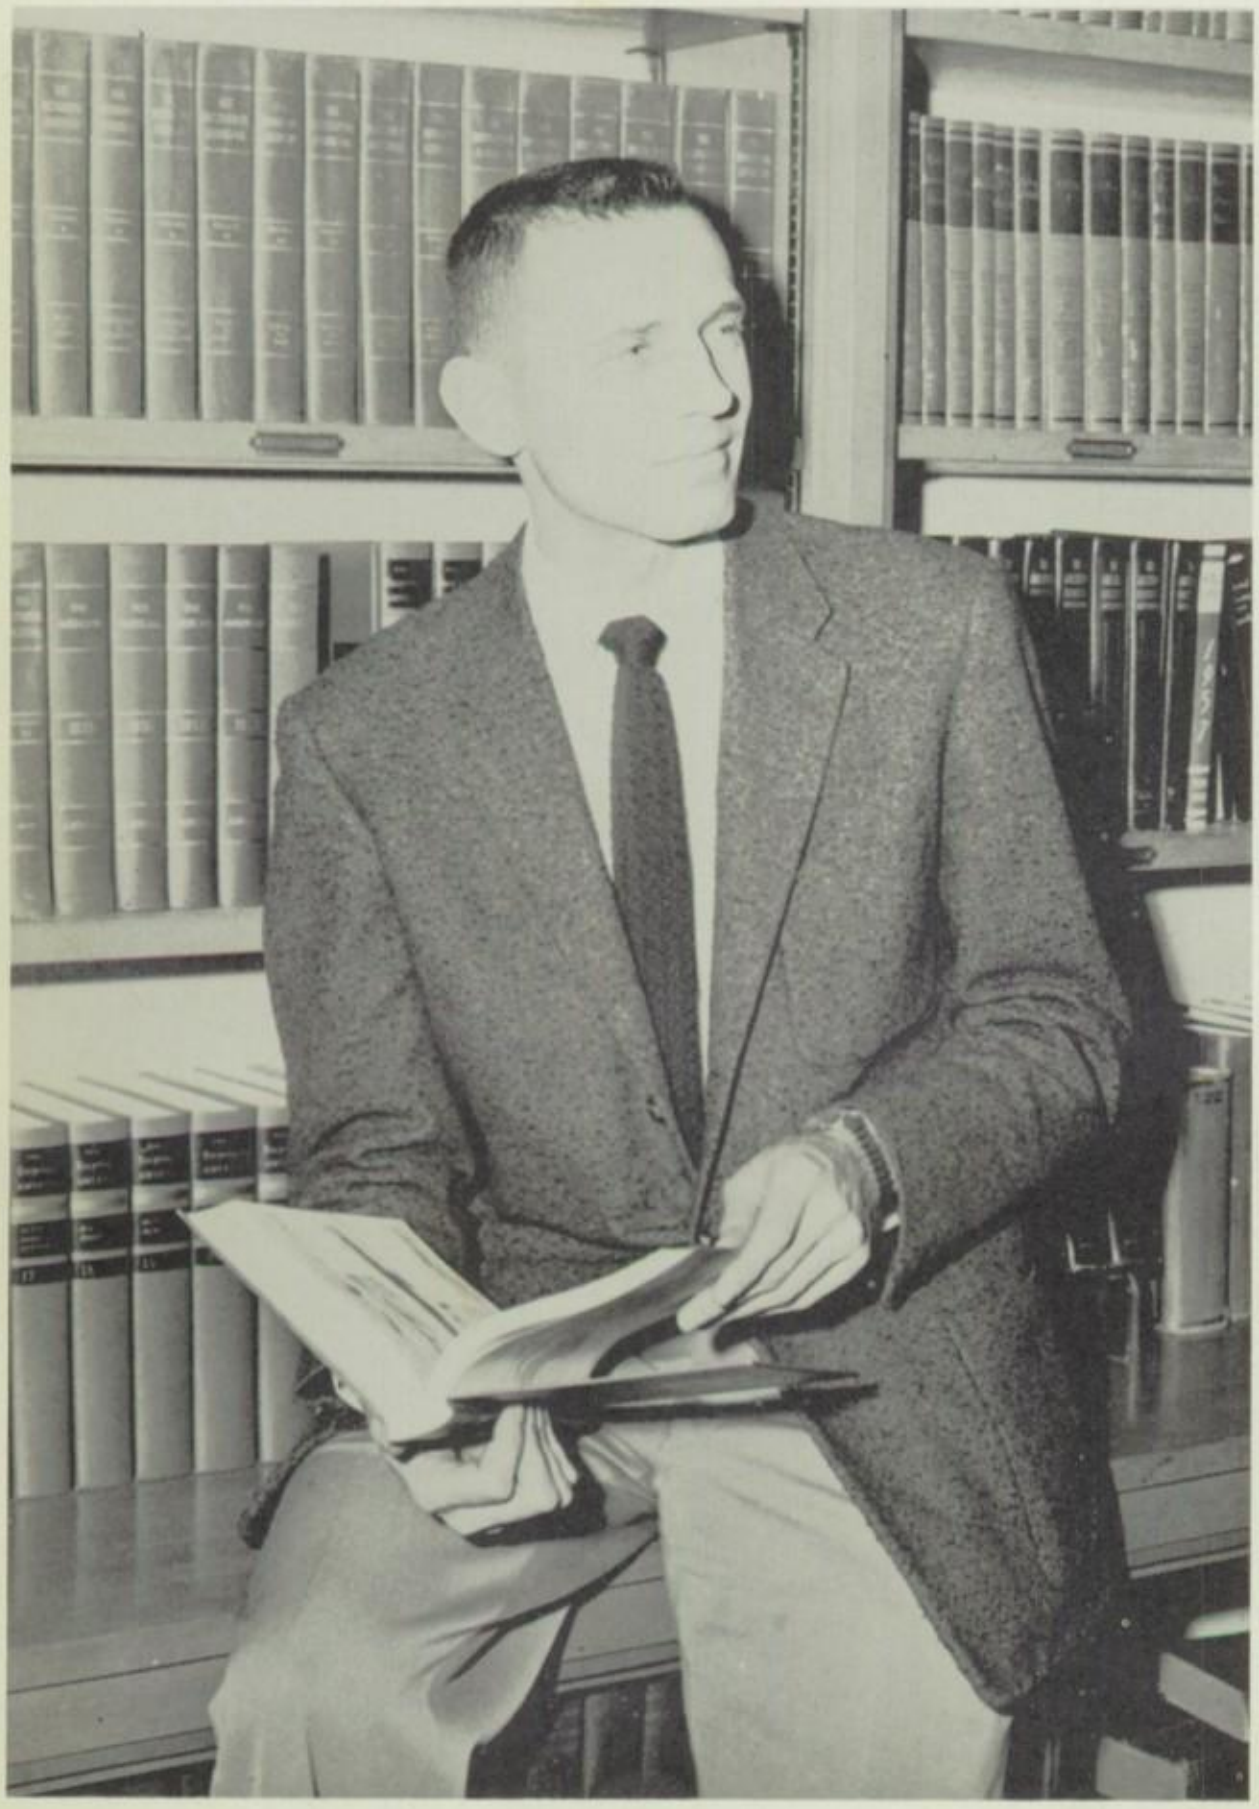
DEDICATION



We, the 1961 Senior Class of Cissna Park High School, dedicate the CARDINAL to Mr. Joseph Borowski, our teacher, class sponsor, and friend.

We shall long remember his active interest in school life and his untiring efforts to help our class in all our projects. His contributions will remain an integral part of our lives and of Cissna Park High School.

CLASS PROPHECY

Many years from now, a great white hunter will take a trip. Her name will be ELIZABETH LAUBSCHER. She will take a trip to the Uncharted Land Where Jungles Abound. To interpret for her she will take along that noted linguist, ORVILLE HENRICHS. Orville speaks fourteen languages fluently, the only trouble being that no one else has ever heard of these languages. She will then charter an eight-motor bi-plane to be designed by RUSSELL VERKLER, noted aeronautical engineer. To fly this fabulous plane she will hire an aviator who gained his experience flying balloons during the Civil War (who, incidentally, was decorated four times for cowardliness), BILL GUDEMAN.

Her first stop will be Cuba. She will be met at the airport by the newly elected president of Cuba, the bearded BOB REUTTER. She will then pick up a famed Uncharted Land Where Jungles Abound guide, DEAN HARI. While in Cuba she will pick up two boxes of hand-rolled cigars rolled by that expert cigar roller, JOAN HURLIMAN. She will also pick up three barrels of chicken fat, rendered by that wonderful chicken fat renderer, LONNIE RIECHES. On her way back to the docks she will suddenly remember that she needs fifteen buckets of pickled pigs feet, pickled by that pickled pigs feet pickler, ELBERTA HOFER.

Also on her way to the docks she will be stopped by a roving numismatist, VIRGINIA SCHEIWE, searching for a most valued coin, the only one in existance with a picture of the first lady president, KAREN KOESTER, who held office twenty-three minutes until she was assassinated by her close competetor, COOKIE REUTTER. After she searches through her purse, which was designed for her by EDDIE TOBECK, she finds nothing and pushes on.

She will load her equipment on the Santa Maria, which will be piloted by AARON COLUMBUS KNAPP, and then will head for the Uncharted Land Where Jungles Abound. Her trip will be a hazardous one. The first day out she will discover a plot against her life. The assassins, DICK and DAVE KNAKE, will be apprehended by her private body guard ALTA ZBIDEN, and after a tremendous struggle they will be thrown into the brig designed by that wonderful brig designer, BOB BERG.

Landing on the shore she immediately will push forward into the Uncharted Land Where Jungles Abound. At the first village she will be welcomed by two natives of the land. They will look familiar to her. She will recognize them as MARION WEBER and STEVE MALVOLIO O'BRIEN (remembered for his darkroom antics while in high school). Dean will ask them where he can get other natives of the land who can help him transport his chicken fat, cigars, and pickled pigs feet. The natives will recommend MADALYN BAUER to drive the truck, SAM DRAYER to be a water bearer, and DAVID SCHULDT to carry the chicken fat. Also recommended will be DEAN CLARK to carry the cigars, and JIM RINKENBERGER to carry the pickled pigs feet. All of these people are recognized as experts in their particular field of transportation. They will push on.

On the first night they will be awakened by weird cries. Thinking it a group of monkeys, they will look up into the trees and see SONIA BEER singing, accompanied by CARL RUDIN and his Flying Guitar. After reassuring everyone that all is well, they will push on. By chance, they will find a house in the trees. It will be owned by BRENDA VERKLER, who came to the jungle to train tame alligators to be wild. After discussing the time of day they will push on. Hardly out of sight of the house they will be attacked by four dreadfully abominable snow women dressed in bikinis, who look amazingly like MARILYN EKHOFF, GLORIA HODEL, JOAN FELLER, and SHIRLEY HAUPTLI. The dreadfully abominable snow women will then steal their supplies. The group will be left stranded in the Uncharted Land Where Jungles Abound. Suddenly the earth will be shaken by the thunderous hoofbeats of the masked avengers of the jungle, RALPH BAUER and TERESSA BEEBE as they ride to the rescue. They will drive off the abominable snow women and rescue the supplies. The group will push on. Suddenly they will come to a clearing and know that their goal is near. Across the clearing they will see three armed guards, DALE SCHLEEF, CHARLENE GERDES, and GARY RUDIN. As they approach one of the guards will shout in one of the fourteen languages Orville knows, "Do you have a pass signed by Queen JANIE KRUMWIEDE?" After overpowering the guards they will break into the treasure house and find an autographed picture of SANDY YERGLER, who was remembered for her talent on the bongos. This not being the treasure they were searching for, they push on and on toward the treasure, inspired by the great Dr. ANNA LANGE, who was, as they will be, lost many years ago in the Uncharted Land Where Jungles Abound.

SCHOOL CALENDAR 1960-61

AUGUST

29 - My goodness, how the time does fly!
Summer vacation is o'er;
We see the faces of our old friends,
And new Freshmen coming in the door.

SEPTEMBER

7 - Today we had a baseball game
With Mel.-Sib., I believe;
The team came home with a victory;
The score was 8-3.

8 - We hit 'em high, we hit 'em low
Against the Wellington team.
We won that game, 4-0;
Our boys are on the beam!

13 - Just everything is baseball now;
It's Sheldon High today.
Our fellows showed a lot of spunk;
Brought a 3rd victory our way!

14-15 - Aha! We won two more games,
Roberts-Thawville 6-4.
Then we traveled to Crescent City
Where 4-0 was the score.

16 - All the students are sorry now;
There is no school they know.
All of the wonderful teachers
To institute had to go.

20 - Another baseball game we've won,
Against B-L, 4-1.

21 - The school is getting ambitious;
Our magazine campaign has begun.
Each class is doing their best
To raise their money fund.

23 - Today we elected cheerleaders,
Fresh.-Soph., and Varsity too.
We know they will do their best
To pull our cheering section through.

Tonight at an all-school party,
The Seniors put the Freshmen to work.
The stunts that they performed for us
They were not allowed to shirk.

26 - Oh joy for us - the Senior Class,
We're leaving school today.
Good sales techniques will be in use,
"Please buy an ad," we'll say.

28 - And Annual work is coming now
Along in fullest sway.
A meeting was held tonight at school
To help us on our way.

29 - Oh look at all the Seniors!
Pilon's coming today,
To take our Senior pictures.
He's the best they say!

OCTOBER

3 - Report today comes in to us
From our general assembly meet.
C. W. took all our troubles bad
And fixed them up quite neat.

5 - The Senior Class has won again
Which makes four times in a row.
They set a magazine campaign record
Much to the other classes' woe.

11 - Those lucky F.F.A. officers
Left for Kansas City today.
We'll all surely miss them,
They'll be back they say.

28 - 'Tis Halloween at Cissna High
The bats and cats are here,
With popcorn balls and cider sweet
At the party of the year!

31 - A general assembly is held again;
Fred Lowrey is the guest.
Everyone enjoyed this program,
His whistling is the best.

NOVEMBER

3 - Oh, dress rehearsal for the play!
Let's everyone sit tight.
For this is the best play you'll ever see.
Be at DEAR PHOEBE Saturday night.

4 - Oh, now we have just started out
Our basketball in tune,
By beating Stockland here tonight.
More games are coming soon!

5 - This was a terribly funny play.
Did you not think so, too?
Unexpectedly the door fell down,
But the cast calmly pulled through.

8 - We're getting quite political;
Our parties are begun.
We're to 'lect a president;
Oh, won't that just be fun?

10 - We play at Sheldon High tonight;
We're looking for a win.
Let's hope the boys put on some pep
And just go dig right in!

11 - Spaghetti supper comes off tonite;
We 'spect it will be fine.

SCHOOL CALENDAR 1960-61

Everyone is invited,
Bring your friends and dine.

13 - Who: The Senior Class
What: A party at Ristow's Cafe.
When: Sunday evening
Why: To celebrate our play.

NOVEMBER

14 - Now since Miss Gedelman has come
We must be good, you see,
A new assistant teacher;
We wonder how she'll be?

DECEMBER

7-10 - The Iroquois Conference Tournament
Is at Cissna Park this year.
Be sure to come and see each game
And give your team a cheer.

16 - Put on your dancing shoes
And come to the Christmas Dance.
It will be a "Wonderland by Night,"
That will put you in a trance.

21 - A Christmas Cantata was held here tonight,
The STAR AND THE STABLE was the name.
We hear the public enjoyed the performance
And wish to hear more of the same.

JANUARY

25-28 - The Fresh.-Soph. Tourney is on the way
Far better than before.
I'm glad we won 1st from Milford
By quite a handsome score!

FEBRUARY

18 - Our speech students have gone to compete
Now at the district meet.
With all these larger schools
It looks a little bleak.

29 - The fine PARKER PRESS staff
Puts out a lot of news,
To entertain the students
Just before their evening snooze.

MARCH

2 - Sheldon, our rival team
Has beat us once again.
But we are sure their time will come
The Regional Tournament has begun.

29 - The season of the track meet
Has now been just begun
Today we're heading South
To compete at Rankin.

A slumber party was held at school
By the G.A.A. and the F.H.A.
Girls, be prepared to stay awake;
Boys, stay away!

APRIL

14 - At last! The Juniors do decide
Upon their future play.
GIRL CRAZY is the title
Get your tickets today.

15 - For the music contest at Pontiac
We've worked - Oh! just so!
Ten entries in all
And five to state will go.

MAY

5 - Oo La La! The banquet's now;
Mothers and daughters all come
The F.H.A. will entertain them
For an evening filled with fun.

12 - At the Junior-Senior Prom
We danced till twelve
"Red Sails in the Sunset"
Was a prom we won't forget.

13 - The Seniors are so happy;
We're leaving CP today
Washington and New York, here we come,
For a whole weeks' stay!

Our Greyhound has come to pick us up
And take us on our way.
Our first stop will be in Washington
In New York we'll be our fourth day.

19 - Now it is time to come back
Our exciting trip is o'er.
This adventure will be a lasting memory
We'll remember it forever more.

21 - The Seniors feel a little awed
At baccalaureate
We expect that at this time
They are much overwrought.

26 - We'll remember always Graduation Day
Tho' we leave in sorrow all the joys we've known
It's a time for joy, a time for tears
But in the future we'll never walk alone.

29 - To all the students who remain
We give this final message to you
Do the way the Seniors have
And you'll enjoy high school, too.

Those busy, busy stage hands.

It won't be long now!

fee-fie-foe-fum . . . leads to . . . a tense, fierce battle

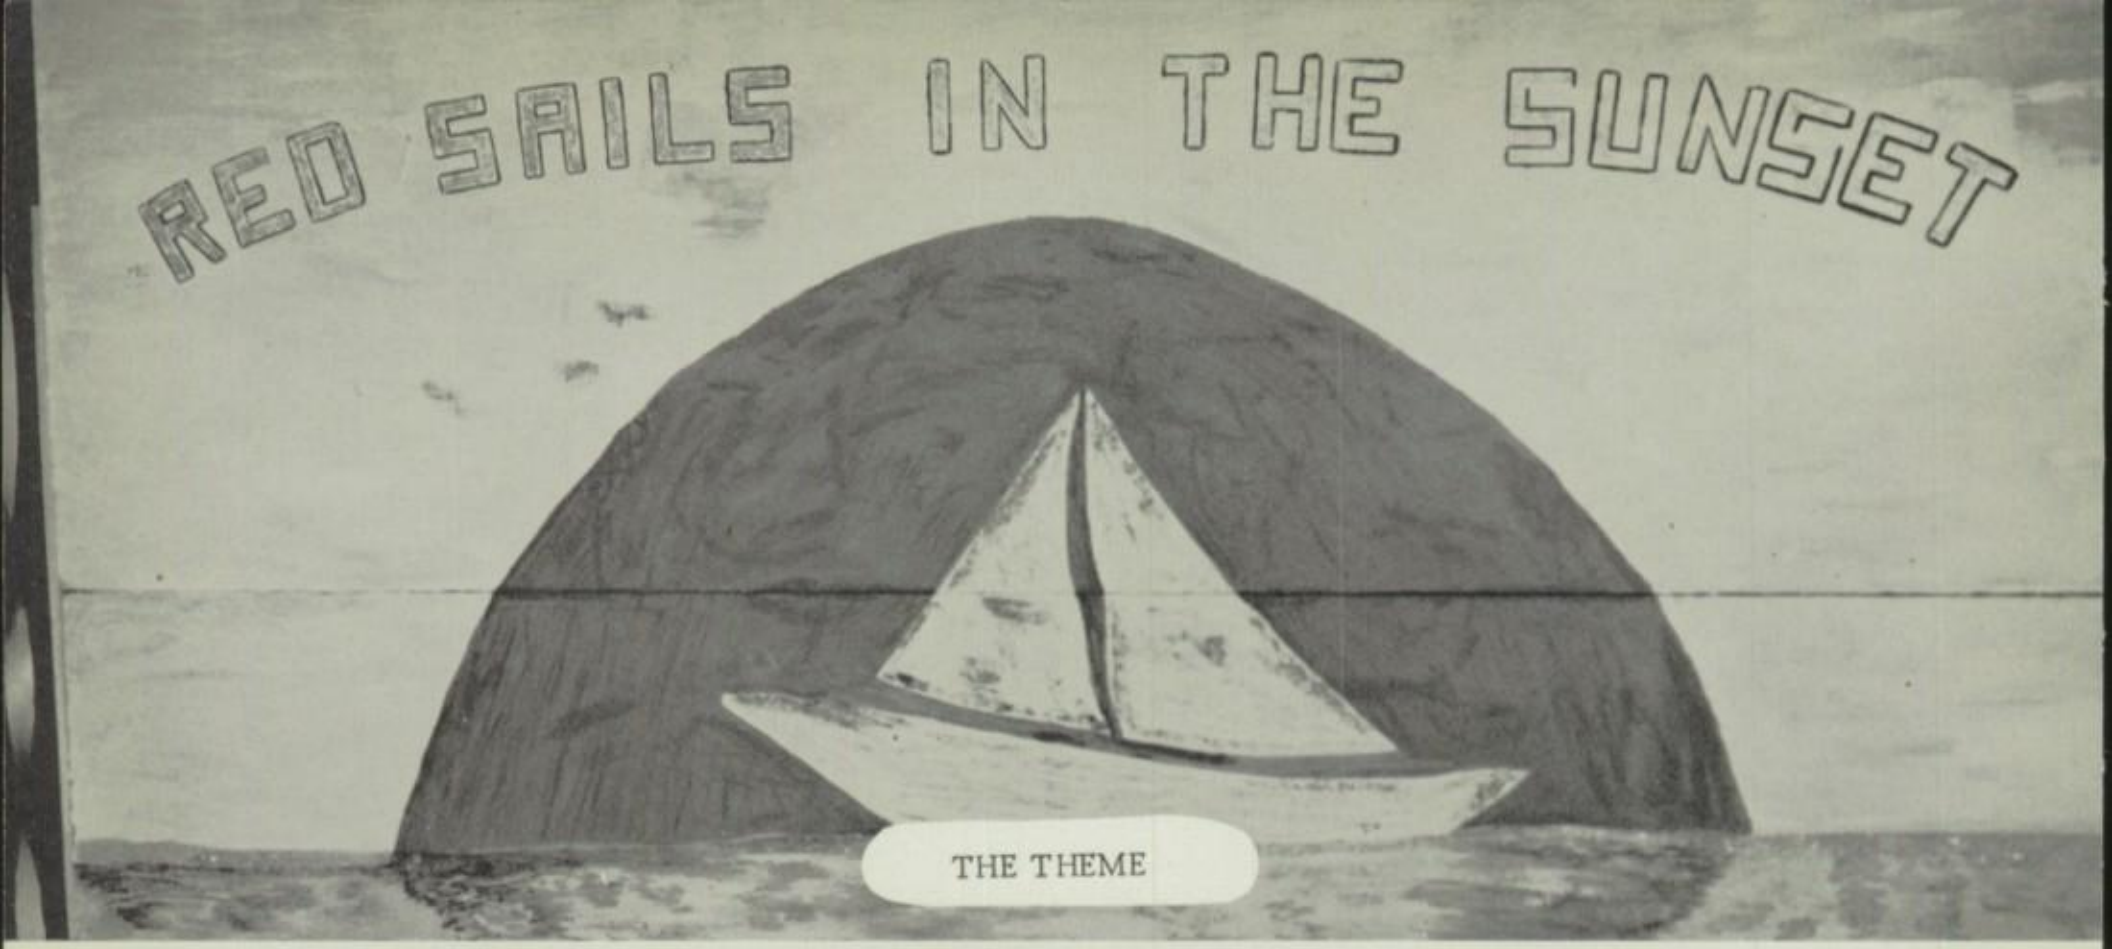
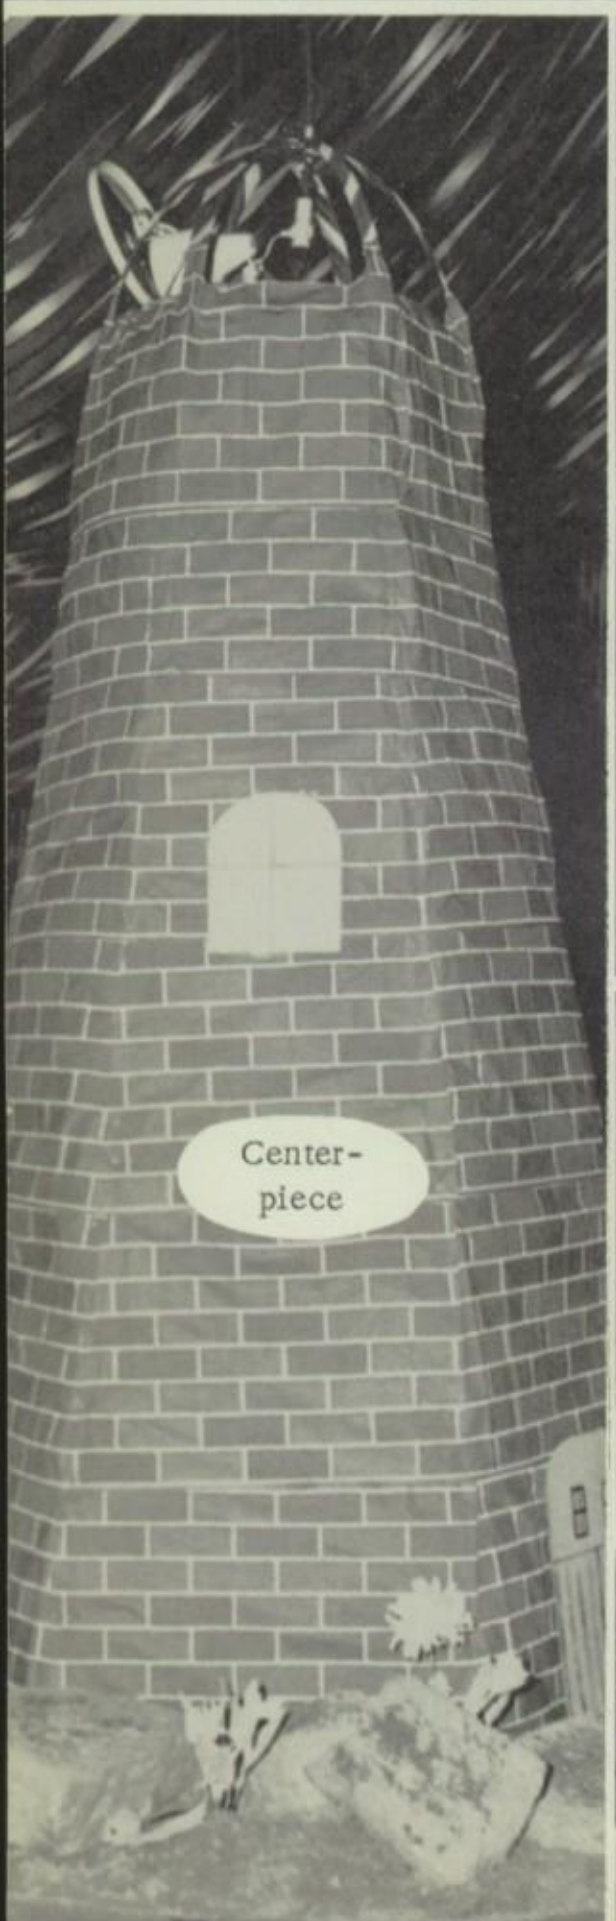
Of course, the bad guy always loses!!!

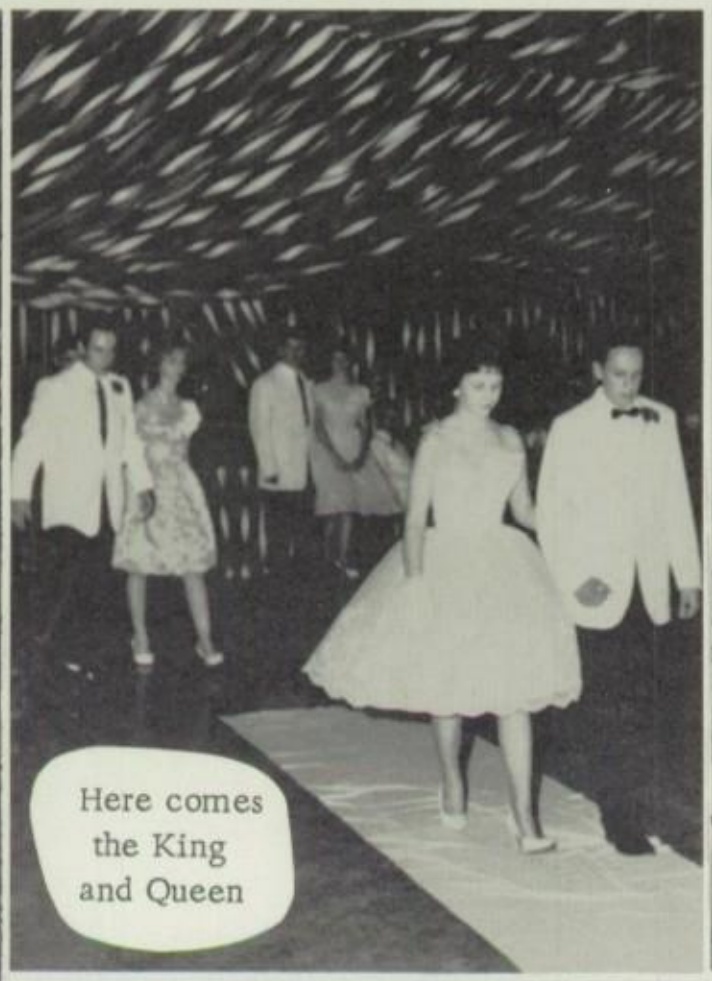
Now let's get down to serious "stuff"



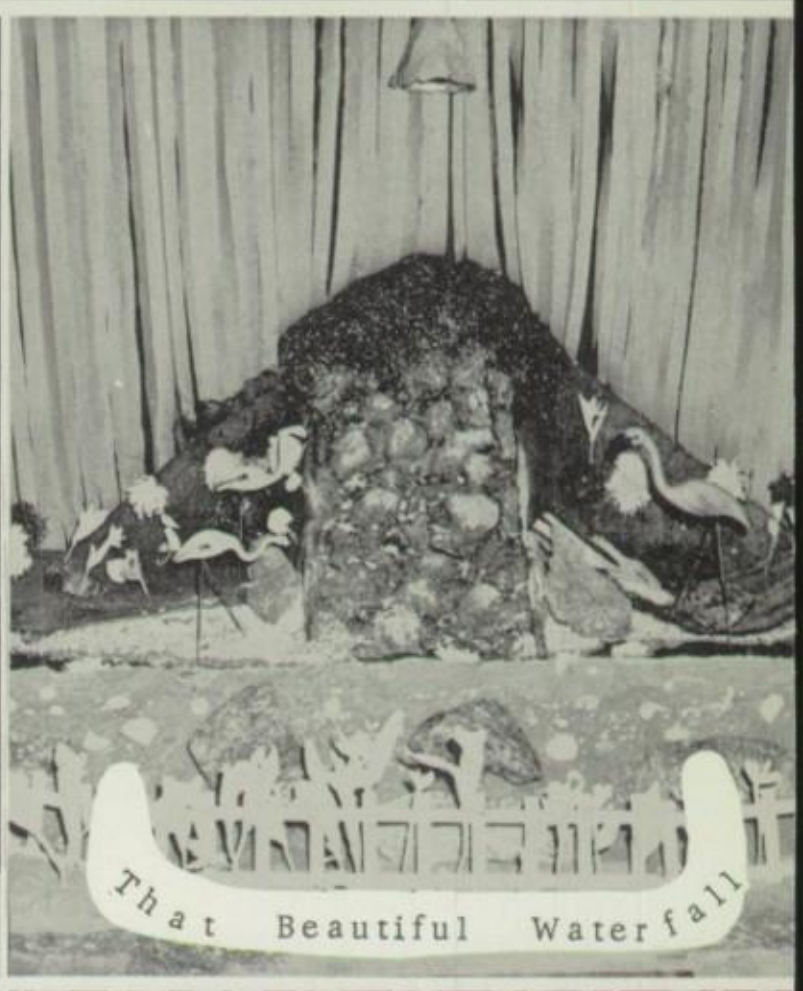
THE THEME



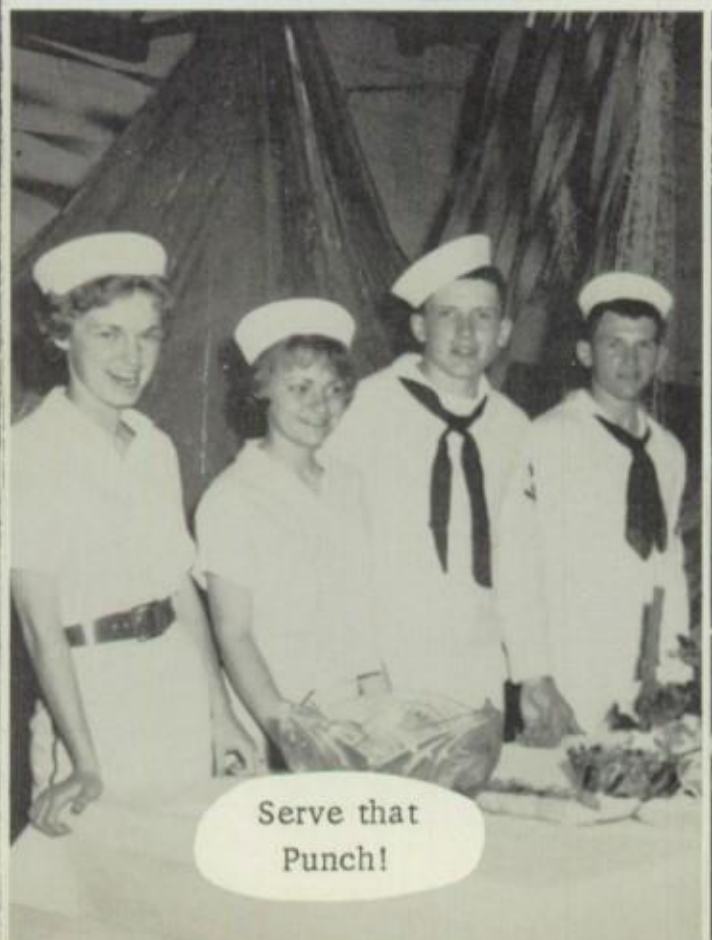
Center-piece



Here comes the King and Queen



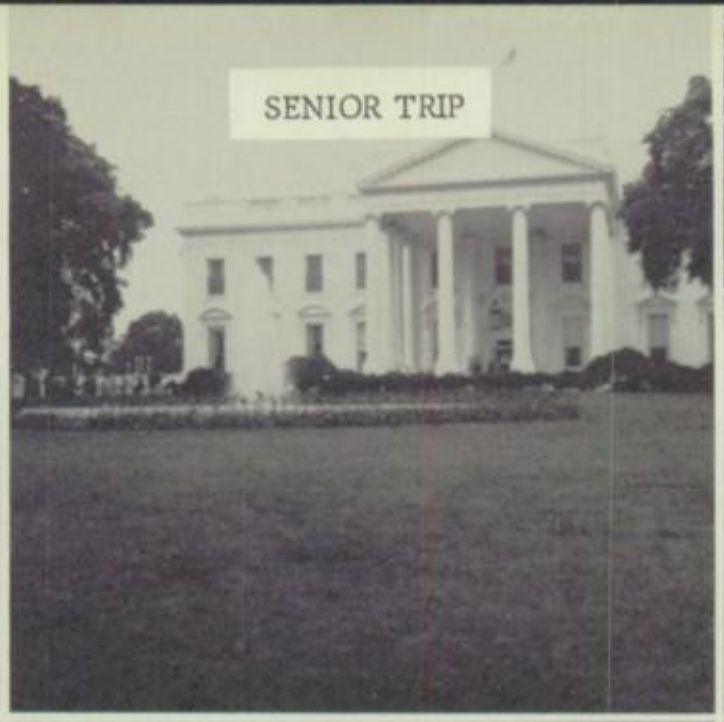
That Beautiful Waterfall



Serve that Punch!

Play those instruments

SENIOR TRIP



I, Madalyn Bauer, will my car trouble to Kempfer's Drivers Ed. class, so they too can learn the art of changing tires, and repairing broken accelerator pedals.

I, Ralph Bauer, will my collection of broken frames and cracked lenses to Butch Gudeman so that he too can spend half of his time after school at the eye doctor.

I, Teressa Beebe, will my baritone sax and all the fun I've had at music contests to a future graduate, hoping he will enjoy it as much as I.

I, Sonia Beer, will my nickname "Booze" to Kay Thompson so she too can be accused of drinking.

I, Bob Berg, will my love of Mr. Reynolds' classes to Alan Price, so that he too can spend half his class time in either the office or the library.

I, Dean Clark, being of reasonably sound mind, do hereby, will my love for national heroes who were born on school days to Donald Obergfel.

I, Sam Drayer, will my sprained ankles to anyone who wants to take the time to tape them up before each basketball game.

I, Marilyn Ekhoff, will my old battered-up lunch tickets that never get handed in on time (for some unexplainable reason) to any Freshman who likes school lunches.

I, Joan Feller, will my messy, hard-to-open locker, #101, to Melody Martin so she too can have the fun of being late to classes.

I, Charlene Gerdes, will Joanie's and my ability to skip first period library and go to the locker room to sit and talk about our exciting week-ends to Anne and Charlene.

I, Bill Gudeman, will my long legs and big feet to Mr. Nelson so he won't get so tired walking his beat.

I, Dean Hari, will my good times, as a senior, to Glen Morton so he can have fun in Bookkeeping class as I did.

I, Shirley Hauptli, will my lonely Senior year to Karol Feller so she too can walk the halls alone.

I, Orville Hendricks, will my mouse-catching job to anyone who needs extra credit in Biology, so they too may pass.

I, Gloria Hodel, will the long lunch at C.P.H.S. to any student who likes to get indigestion from eating fast.

I, Elberta Hofer, will my flips to my classmates in P.E. so they won't have to soothe their aches and pains from falling down like I had to when I was first learning.

I, Joan Hurliman, will my ability to have a great time on those wonderful week-ends during the school year to anyone in C.P.H.S. who also enjoys those late nights.

I, David Knake, will my many problems in bookkeeping to my brother, Dennis.

I, Richard Knake, will my car doors to anyone who can make them shut tight.

I, Aaron Knapp, will my candy selling to Larry Knapp so he can become a salesman.

I, Karen Koester, will my ability to get all of my office machine reports in late to Elaine Teske, so she too can come up with a low grade.

I, Janie Krumwiede, will my writing ability to Carol Vogel so she can finish her book.

I, Anna Lange, will my accent to Sharon Reed.

I, Elizabeth Laubscher, will my seat in bookkeeping to Jayne Kaufman so she too can watch all the trucks and cars go by instead of listening to the teacher.

I, Steve O'Brien, will all my aches and pains of the dark room to "Scrooge" Beebe.

I, Bob Reutter, will my love for athletics and my fun participating in them to Aaron Bauer.

I, Cookie Reutter, will my fun during cheerleading to all future cheerleaders.

I, Lonnie Rieches, will my excellent typing ability to Ronald Rieches, so he too may have the privilege of becoming a poor typist.

I, James Rinkenberger, will the fun I've had during those memorable extracurricular activities to Eddie Biehl.

I, Carl Rudin, will all the days that I missed school to Mr. Watson. He looks overworked and needs a vacation.

I, Gary Rudin, will my 440 record to Larry "Rink" so he too can run around the track in a hurry.

I, Virginia Scheiwe, will my nickname "Betty Crocker" to Sandy Breymeyer with the hope that she knows more about homemaking than I do.

I, Dale Schleef, will my ability to collect five detentions in one day to anyone who likes long school days.

I, Dave Schuldt, will my love for catching in baseball to Orval Cluver so he too can bruise his knuckles.

I, Eddie Tobeck, will my Senior picture to anyone who wants it, or has guts enough to ask me for one.

I, Susie Verkler, will all my interesting and good times in high school to all the students of C.P.H.S.

I, Russel Verkler, will all my good chances of skipping school to anyone who wants to get kicked out of school for awhile.

I, Marion Weber, will my corner locker in P.E. to anyone who likes to be shoved around.

I, Sandy Yergler, will my good times in C.P.H.S. to my sister, Barb, and also the job of accompanying to Glenda Egolf.

I, Alta Zbinden, will all the good times that go with putting out a Parker Press to Pat Behrens and Carol Kimmel, so that they too, will enjoy working on the paper their Senior year.

Class of 1961:

The pictures and incidents recorded herein will provide you with a basis for a reminder of the many things that you have done and that have occurred to you during your school days.

You have been a grand class, with many accomplishments of which you can be justly proud.

Our best wishes to you in whatever you do and wherever you go. May the ideals you have developed here be the foundation for a happy and rewarding life.

Sincerely,

C. L. Watson
